GUILD of BOSTON ARTISTS

162 NEWBURY STREET

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

THE GUILD OF BOSTON ARTISTS is a co-operative institution, composed of Active and Associate Members.

The Active Members are in turn entitled to individual exhibitions of one fortnight each, in the Guild Gallery during the season. Each Active Member will also contribute one painting or piece of sculpture, to be placed on exhibition in the salesroom connected with the Gallery. During the summer months each of the artists will be represented in a general exhibition. On account of restricted space the number of Active Members is necessarily limited.

Each Active Member pays $100.00 on entering the Guild, and a yearly assessment not exceeding $100.00 in any subsequent year.

The Associate Members are lovers of art who are interested in this enterprise, and who feel that Boston should have some gallery where strangers visiting the city can at any time see some of the best work of Boston Artists. To each Associate Member there will be given a ticket of admission — for two persons — to the private views, which will be held every fortnight during the season, at which tea will be served. At the end of every year a reproduction of some drawing or other work of art by a member of the Guild, signed by the artist, is given to each Associate Member. These reproductions are given only to Active and Associate Members of the Guild, and form a very interesting collection.

Associates pay no entrance fee, but contribute $10.00 a year toward the running expenses of the Guild.

The names of the Active Members will be found on the following page. Among the Associate Members, who already far outnumber the Active Members, are many of the most prominent art connoisseurs in Boston and other cities, and it will give us great pleasure to add your name to the list.

Names of those desiring to become Associate Members should be sent to the Secretary,

MRS. T. S. PERRY, 162 Newbury Street, Boston, enclosing a check for $10.00 payable to the Guild of Boston Artists.

The Guild of Boston Artists

[INCORPORATED]

THE GUILD OF BOSTON ARTISTS is a co-operative institution, composed of Active and Associate Members.

The Active Members are in turn entitled to individual exhibitions of one fortnight each, in the Guild Gallery, during the season. Each Active Member will also contribute one work of art, to be placed on continuous exhibition in the salesroom connected with the Gallery. During the summer months there will be a general exhibition of all the artists. On account of restricted space the number of Active Members is necessarily limited.

Each Active Member is obliged to pay $100 on entering the Guild, and a yearly assessment not exceeding $100 in any subsequent year.

The Associate Members are lovers of art who are interested in this undertaking, and who feel that Boston should have some gallery where strangers visiting the city can at any time see some of the best work of Boston artists. To each Associate Member there will be given a ticket of admission—for two persons—to all the private views, which will be held every fortnight during the season. At the end of every year a reproduction of some drawing or other work of art by a member of the Guild, signed by the artist himself, will be given to each Associate Member. These signed reproductions will be given only to Active and Associate Members of the Guild, and, it is hoped, will in time form an interesting collection.

Associates pay no entrance fee, but contribute $10 a year toward the running expenses of the Guild.

The names of the Active Members will be found below. Among the Associate Members, who already far outnumber the Active Members, are many of the most prominent art connoisseurs in the city, and it will give us great pleasure to add your name to the list.

Names of those desiring to become Associate Members should be sent to the Secretary,

Mrs. T. S. PERRY, 312 Marlborough Street.
